TO REACH MILLION.

Fargo, N. D., Oct. 19.—The sale of liberty loan bonds in Cass county will reach a million dollars by Saturday, it was announced by the liberty loan committee today. Up to today $950,250 had been subscribed. Cass county's quota is $850,000. Fargo bought $695,000 worth of bonds.

Inmates of the state penitentiary have come forward and as individuals subscribed for Liberty Bonds, setting an example for some of the slackers on the "outside." There are no "nervous patriots" among them either. They just felt that they wanted to help and feel that despite temporary incarceration they too have love and devotion for the nation.

The committee that canvassed the inmates and staff at the penitentiary went away enthusiastic over the spirit shown. Many of these men subscribed to the first loan and also contributed to the $50 raised for the Red Cross war benefit.

Buy Them for "Kiddies." One of the fine aspects of the participation in the loan by inmates is the fact that several prisoners who had dependent children subscribed in the name of dependent children.

Warden Talbot, spoke feelingly to the Tribune today when discussing the attitude of the men and their general feeling toward the war. These voluntary subscriptions present a study in prison psychology which is interesting penologists the world over. The men came in and asked permission to devote a portion of their earnings to the Liberty Loan. Of course consent was readily given.

County Sales Success. The campaign is continuing unabated, despite the fact that Burleigh county's quota is more than subscribed. H. P. Goddard has received no official reports from centers outside of Bismarck, but yesterday Wing had raised $3,500 of its $5,000 quota. Baldwin will have no difficulty in purchasing $5,000 worth of bonds. Moffitt raised $3,000 the first day and assurance were received from Driscoll and McKenzie that no difficulty would be experienced in getting their quotas. Wilton will go far beyond its quota.

Team Members Praised. Too high a tribute cannot be paid to the city and county team members who made this liberty loan drive such a success. It will be impossible to see everyone and those who desire to purchase the bonds can do so at any bank or postoffice.

"Buy Bonds and Back our Boys." Is the call that is being answered today from everywhere in the great northwest.

The whole great country is rallying to the cry to get behind the men that are going to fight for our rights, our liberties and our homes.

It is never going to be said that the people of the United States of America let their men go into battle unprepared to fight or without the shoes and clothes and food that they must have, or the means to take care of them if they are lowered over.

Men Everywhere in Minnesota. The great truth is being realized that the government is not asking anyone for money, but wants only to borrow it and is giving for it the finest security that exists in the whole world. And patriotism and loyalty today are words that are synonymous with "Liberty Bonds."

Men everywhere in Minnesota, in North Dakota, South Dakota and Montana, in northern Wisconsin and in northern Michigan are being told now to let the sun go down on them without having their names on the Liberty Bond subscription lists and they are heeding it gladly.

The Liberty Loan campaign in the Ninth Federal Reserve district has started so well and with so many evidences already that counties and townships are going to oversubscribe that it all spells "Success and Honor for the Great Northwest."

WASNT PEACE BOAT

McKenzie, N. D., Oct. 19.—A new record for the Henry was established when George Hughes used his humble honker to run down a coyote. The chase was staged on the prairie south of the Hughes place, and through old trails, stone burrows, firebreaks and plowed fields Hughes never took his foot off her tail, but kept feeding her juice until the coyote gave up in disgust and Hughes dispatched the animal with a shotgun.

Reports Reaching Treasury Officials Place Amount to Date at $1,750,000,000

OFFICIALS BELIEVE TOTAL
WILL REACH $5,000,000,000

Washington, Oct. 19.—The Liberty Loan campaign continued its gain today and treasury officials announced the total so far subscribed at about $1,750,000,000 and within "striking distance" of the $2,000,000,000 hoped for by Saturday night. Unofficial figures made public by the department show that a minimum of $1,535,000,000 had been subscribed up to the close of business Wednesday night. Officials were optimistic that the $5,000,000,000 mark would be attained by the close of the campaign October 27th.

New York, Oct. 19.—Disturbances were resumed at the opening of the schools today in the pupils' strike against the Gary system, a political issue in the mayoralty campaign.

At one of the largest Bronx buildings the children broke many windows, and then paraded through the streets with placards, reading: "We won't go back to school until the Gary system is taken out."

The police dispersed them.

Paid Down Good Money on Tract Now Involved in Litigation in U. S. Courts

Martin, N. D., Oct. 19.—Gust Mueller, D. C. Baker, Louis Meyer and John Gross, numbered among many local patrons of the Oregon & California Railway Co., are in Portland, Ore., as witnesses in the famous Oregon "land case," the trial of which begins in the Oregon United States district court today. The local people bought in 1913 land from solicitors representing an Oregon company which had taken over a large tract from the Oregon & California railway. As high as $200 a quarter was paid down by local purchasers when the transaction was held up by a suit instituted against the land company by an Oregon association, which contended it had no right to the lands, which were ceded the railway by the government. It was contended, with the understanding that they would be parceled out direct to settlers at not to exceed $2.50 per acre.

ROOMS FOR TEACHERS
REPORTED TO OFFICE OF COMMERCIAL CLUB

Bismarck people who have spare rooms which can be used the week of Oct. 29 for the accommodation of the 1,700 or more teachers who are expected to attend the annual convention of the North Dakota Education association, are advising the Commercial club, phone 213, where these rooms are being listed for assignment to the visitors. The Commercial club very successfully handled this detail in connection with the education association meeting here in 1914, when more than 1,400 delegates were in attendance, and it hopes to be of as great service in connection with the coming convention.

Teachers under the direction of Supt. J. Maurice Martin also are making a house to house canvass to enlist rooms.

Hospitals and Charitable Institutions Face Serious Shortage of Fuel

Chicago, Oct. 19.—A solution of the coal problems for Illinois, which involves the strike of 70,000 state miners, and shortage of fuel estimated at 1,250,000 tons was approached today from many angles.

Frank Farrington, president of the United mine workers of Illinois, although expressing confidence that the strikers will be at their accustomed task by next Monday morning, is scheduled to meet in Springfield today with pit committees.

J. P. White, president of the United mine workers of America, and advisor of the National Fuel Administrator, has gone to Indianapolis to ask the miners in Illinois, Indiana, and Ohio, to resume work.

John H. Williams, Illinois fuel administrator, is in constant touch with the situation and is advising federal authorities on conditions.

While federal administrators and mine officials were redoubling their efforts to get the men back into the mines, hospitals and charitable institutions are said to be facing a critical situation. Unless the strike is settled immediately and fuel made available, their furnaces cannot be kept going for more than two days.

TO REVOKE CHARTER.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 19.—In telegrams sent today to local miners' unions in Illinois, now on strike, Frank Farrington, state president of the miners' organization declared that in mines where the men are not back to work by October 22, local charters will be revoked.

STRIKE DEFERRED.

Kansas City, Oct. 19.—Thirty-five thousand coal miners, who were to have struck this morning in the southwest coal fields, are at work and coal operators and miners have resumed negotiations to adjust their differences. The strike was deferred yesterday afternoon by an order of the district superintendent.

Washington, Oct. 19.—The historic seniority rule for army promotions was formally set aside today to govern promotions in the national army and national guard.

Garrison, N. D., Oct. 19.—Samuel Hopkins, an 18-year-old Indian boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hopkins of Armstrong, has been missing since Wednesday, when he left home, announcing his intention of crossing the river. When he did not return a search was instituted and his clothes were found on the banks of the Muddy. All efforts to locate his body have failed to date. It is believed that the cold water caused cramps, that the boy went down in midstream and that his body was borne some distance by the current.

Denny Hannifin, "squatter governor" of North Dakota, who won immortality 30 years ago when he said: "What North Dakota needs most is more political graveyards. They would enrich the soil and purify the air," was down town today for the first time since his recent "death" predicted, or actually announced as an accomplished fact in all the newspapers of the northwest. "Now that I've read my obituaries and discovered what a fine fellow I am, I couldn't be mean enough to die and deprive the world of my services," said Denny.

LIGNITE MINES
CAN'T GET HELP
AT $7 THE DAY

Every Property Anxious to Produce Maximum, But Labor Is Found a Scarcity

Despite the fact that lignite mining companies are advertising wages as high as $7 per day, western North Dakota may find it difficult to obtain enough native fuel this winter because of a labor shortage, said Capt. I. P. Baker, fuel administrator for North Dakota, today.

"The relatively high price prevailing for lignite coal—$2.50 at the mouth of the mine—has greatly stimulated production," said Captain Baker. "Every man who has a little coal in his back yard is working with pick and powder. But it is impossible to find sufficient labor. I don't know why this condition should exist. I can see no reason why anybody should not be glad to find a winter's job digging coal, with good wages, a warm place in which to work and so little danger as is connected with coal mining in North Dakota."

North Dakota's fuel dictator is still of the impression that eastern North Dakota will turn out a great deal of fuel this winter. Wyoming lump coal costs $3 the ton at the mouth of the mine, and the freight rate to Bismarck is $3 more. "We can't revolutionize things in a moment," said Captain Baker. "Our freight moves eastward. The railroads must have something to fill those cars with when they bring them back into the state. It would be ridiculous to ask them to return empty cars in order that they may haul coal from Montana and Wyoming. They will bring these cars back filled with Illinois and Iowa coal as they have been doing."

"The national government is doing its best to assure North Dakota and every other state an adequate supply of coal. In every state we have a fuel administrator and an advisory board named by the government. Soon we will have a county administrator and advisory board in every county. Then we will have an opportunity to discover just what each county needs. It is useless to blame the elevator companies, lumber yards and other local dealers for not stocking up in the summer. They couldn't have done it had they wanted to. With the big manufacturers, railway companies and the government standing at the mouth of every ton that came out, with no question about the price, and with an immediate demand for every ton of that coal, we wouldn't expect that it would be shipped out here where there is no immediate need."

Chicago Dealers Declare Beet Sugar Refineries Will Take Care of That City

Chicago, Oct. 19.—A nationwide shortage of sugar, which threatens to make Christmas almost a candleless holiday, will be less felt in Chicago than elsewhere, according to wholesalers who said today there is a "gentlemen's agreement" between the western beet sugar manufacturers and wholesalers in that section, that this city shall be taken care of first.

Chicago dealers expect to have shipments of new sugar from the west within ten days, but many sections of the country will go none of the new crop for from 60 to 90 days.

SUGAR FAMINE.

New York, Oct. 19.—With wholesale sources of supply virtually shut off and refiners unable to get the products, New York is threatened with a sugar famine. Many stores have been without sugar for several days and those dealers who have a supply on hand are limiting sales to a few pounds to each customer. Prices have gone up, and some sales as high as 15c a pound have been reported.

NIP PLOT TO BLOW

New York, Oct. 19.—An alleged plot to damage or blow up a United States converted transport here is believed to have been frustrated when the police arrested a Scandinavian today charged with attempting to bribe a ship mechanic to go aboard the vessel.

The man arrested is Charles Wallman, a pantryman employed on a yacht owned by Harry Payne Whitney.

New York, Oct. 19.—The use of cold storage eggs as army rations will be suggested to the government it was learned here today by representatives of the butter and egg exchanges of Boston, Minneapolis, Chicago, and New York, and the mercantile exchange of New York. A committee consisting of one member each of these markets, will confer with Food Administrator Hoover at Washington, this afternoon. It was said they would suggest that the federal food official fix a price, which would be on the usual basis of cost plus ten per cent.

SUEMIRINES ATTACK
SAILING VESSELS

An Atlantic Port, Oct. 19.—Attacks on three American sailing ships by German submarines were reported by their crews, who reached here today on a French liner. Captain Mortenson of the three-masted American bark Palonia of 1158 tons said that on Sept. 27, when his vessel was a hundred and forty miles from Brest, she was fired on by a U-boat, but not hit. The Germans then came along, looted her and sank her with bombs. The captain and his crew escaped in the boats and were picked up by a French destroyer.

Almost Impossible to Get Pedagogues for Rural Districts Because of Draft

Chicago, Oct. 19.—War has drawn on the nation's teaching force to such an extent that schools are closing at an alarming rate, according to Dr. Frenette, head immigration inspector and chief of the local division of the government bureau of employment. "Thirty-five per cent of the country's teachers, he said, either have enlisted or have been drafted since July 1. It has been found almost impossible, he declared, to get teachers for rural schools."

KEY TO POLICY OF GERMANS GIVEN

Zurich, Switzerland, Oct. 19.—"The journey of Emperor William and Foreign Secretary Kuehlmann should be regarded in a certain sense as a preliminary step toward peace," says the Neue Nachrichten of Munich. "The Emperor's conversations at Sofia and Constantinople certainly means the examination of every possibility in that direction, although it would be a mistake to conclude that the decision might embody concessions by the enemy. The peace by negotiation, which we desire, has nothing in common with that of Lord George and Asquith."

KEY TO POLICY.

Copenhagen, Oct. 19.—The key to the policy of the german government in refusing to make any definite statement of peace terms is furnished by Herr Hook, a socialist member of the Reichstag. German newspapers report that Herr Hook told yesterday that Dr. Von Bethmann Hollweg before his retirement as imperial chancellor declared to the socialist members of the reichstag that as the chancellor he could not commit himself, but must pull out in the peace negotiations whatever could be obtained for Germany. Herr Hook cited this as proof of the ambiguous game the government is playing with its various peace declarations.

Defenses of Gulf of Riga Practically Abandoned by Slav Defenders

BLAME BRITISH FLEET. London, Oct. 19.—The Daily Mail condemns what it calls the failure of the British fleet to prevent the German fleet from becoming master of the Gulf of Riga and demands that "the admiralty explain this humiliating display in the Baltic."

After recalling the successes of the British submarines against the Germans in the Baltic in the summer and autumn of 1915, the newspaper says:

"The Germans have accomplished all they were prevented from achieving in 1915, and they have done so without a single blow being struck at them by any arm of the British navy, a navy far stronger than it was two years ago, and recently reinforced by the addition of the American fleet."

Petrograd, Oct. 19.—The government has definitely determined to move to Moscow in the very near future, according to an announcement by Minister of Public Welfare Kislin today. The newspapers publish an official announcement that the evacuation of the fortified port of Reval, on the Baltic at the entrance to the Gulf of Finland, has begun. The schools at Reval have been closed, and the inhabitants of the city are being sent into the interior of Russia.

Keen to Fight. The sailors of the main Baltic fleet are reported to be keen to fight. The men at Kronstadt are demanding that the ships be sent out to meet the Germans, but the government is determined to have taken the position that as the enemy forces are of superior size it would be disastrous to leave Petrograd undefended.

Two German torpedo boats were sunk in the mine fields in Moon Sound yesterday, the war office announces.

After the capture of Riga by the Germans preparations for the removal of the government to Moscow were begun. The failure of the Germans to develop their offensive after taking Riga, as well as the ardor of winter, has made it possible to open campaigning impracticable relieved the fears for the safety of Petrograd for the near future. Last week announcement was made that the preparations for transferring the seat of government had been stopped, as there was no prospect that such action would be necessary, at least for some time.

Ancient Capital. The new offensive operations of the Germans, resulting in the capture of Oesel and Moon islands, and the threat of an invasion of Estonia again changed the situation, however, and may be responsible for the decision to remove the government to Moscow, the ancient capital. The turbulent political conditions in Petrograd, the presence of large numbers of extremists and agitators may also have influenced the cabinet.

Reval, a town of about 65,000, 200 miles southwest of Petrograd, is a naval station, and with Helsingfors and Hangö on the northern coast of Finland, guards the approaches to the gulf. The landing of German forces on the Estonian coast would menace this town from the rear.

In the battle of Wednesday, in which the Russian battleship Slava was sunk, two German trawlers were sent to the bottom, and hits were obtained by Russian battleships on German dreadnaughts. The statements said not less than 10 of the German dreadnaughts of the newest Kaiser and Koenig types took part in this battle.

The Germans on Wednesday began to land troops on Dago island, south of the entrance to the Gulf of Finland. Two Russian infantry regiments, totaling 5,000 men, were captured on Moon island, in the Gulf of Riga. It is announced officially at Berlin. The island is now completely in possession of the Germans.

MOSCOW PREFERRED. Washington, D. C., Oct. 19.—Russian officials here had no official dispatches today on the moving of the provisional government to Moscow. Ever since the removal of the capital from Petrograd was first discussed, Russian officials here have reiterated that the Koresky government felt it could work with fewer hampering influences in Moscow than in Petrograd, which is the center of opposition.

ATTACK ON AISNE.

The initiation of a class of J. C. candidates by Bismarck council No 1694, nights of Columbus, will be made an occasion for the gathering here and day of prominent Columbians from all parts of North Dakota. The jurisdiction of Bismarck council extends over more than a third of North Dakota, including central counties from underwood south to the state line, and west of the river as far as Glen Udon, and all of this territory is represented in the class of candidates to the degrees Sunday.

Bishop Vincent Wearle or Vicar General M. J. Hiltner will officiate at Glenn high mass at St Mary's cathedral at 10 Sunday morning, when nights and candidates will attend in body. The first degree will then be conferred at Patterson's hall, and adjournment will be taken for luncheon. The second and third degrees will be conferred in the afternoon, and the day's program closes with a banquet the evening at the McKenzie hotel, where Assistant Attorney General Daniel V. Brennan will preside as toastmaster. Among those who are expected to respond are George M. McKenna of Napoleon, ex-cities attorney of Logan county, J. H. Kelch of Mandan, P. J. Cahill of Minot, George W. Murphy of Williston, George W. Cunningham of Bismarck, state deputy, State Deputy and J. Traynor of Devils Lake, and J. P. Cairns of F. Murtha and T. B. Jamestown, N. D., Oct. 19.—Although no official figures could be obtained today, early returns indicate that Stutsman county responded with enthusiasm and patriotism in the second liberty loan campaign. Returns have been so scattered that officials refuse to even estimate the total amount subscribed, but firmly believe Stutsman has fulfilled its allotment of $175,000.

A potent laxative is necessary to the comfort and health of any well-ordered household, because constipation is a source of much trouble, and, in greater or less degree, practically every member of the family is liable to be subjected to it. To act the entire system is affected, and the bowels are not only sluggish but are troubled with flat gases and persons generated by decomposition of the food. The food is not properly digested throughout the body, and often results in various diseases. The use of a powerful laxative may almost have prevented all human diseases, and the necessity of it is to have borne.

More than a century of a continuous use of a combination of simple laxative herbs with peppermint has been known to the people of the United States of America. This prescription is known by various names, and is known by the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. A number of persons have written of it, and, by writing to Dr. W. W. Caldwell, the Washington, D. This picture shows the epoch-making scene of one of the crises of the great war. It portrays the juncture of Cossack reinforcements with the Russian army retreating in disorder in Galicia. By segments the Russians had thrown away their arms and were fleeing with only their blankets and some rations as they had. The Cossack divisions saved the day for democracy, reformed the Russian army and again set its face against the Germans, who have since made no headway on this front.

Deadwood, S. D., Oct. 19—Sol Star, picturesque pioneer of the Black Hills, and who, with his partner, Seth Bullock, was among the first to take the Old Black Hills trail from Bismarck to Deadwood, has left on his last, lone prospecting tour. "If the streets up there are paved with gold, Sol will be right at home," said one of his old pals.

Sol Star, several times mayor of Deadwood, and one of the best liked of all the old timers, was born in Bavaria in 1849—coming to America at the age of 10, and to Helena, Mont., in 1865. He remained at Helena and Virginia City until 1876, serving as register of the United States land office from 1872 to 1874, and for one year as territorial auditor of Montana. He arrived in Deadwood on Aug. 1, 1876, with Capt. Seth Bullock, and two years ago gained fame as a personal friend of Theodore Roosevelt. The miner picked Deadwood as a good camp. They had a large consignment of goods en route to Helena for them.

Wilton, N. D., Oct. 19.—The Washburn Lignite Coal company has made arrangements with the Soo railroad to furnish the company with snowplow and two passenger coaches which equipment will be used in transporting the employees from Wilton and Chapin to mine No. 2, two miles east. The train will start in time for the men to go to work and will return in the evening. The engine will also do all the switching at the mine and will be the loaded and cars ready for the regular freight trains to pick up, both Soo and Northern Pacific. This added equipment to the big mine will facilitate many of the difficulties encountered especially during the winter season when the snow blocks the tracks leading to the mine and much time is lost in waiting for the regular freight trains to come along and clear the tracks.

Every effort is being made by the Wilton operators to increase the output of North Dakota's premier mine and at present the daily production is close to 1,000 tons. Lack of sufficient miners has been a handicap all winter and will continue to be so until the winter season opens up. It is expected the present output will be doubled.

Minot, N. D., Oct. 19.—Carl Riedell, aged 40, a coal miner, who came from Fessenden; was instantly killed at the Davis mine, near Minot, this morning from a premature explosion. An inquest was held this morning. The funeral will be conducted at Burlington.

How the heart of Strauss would swell with joy could he hear Maria Barrientos—the most sensational of all the Metropolitan coloratura sopranos—trill her bird-like way through his immortal Spring Song! More marvelous than the singing of a bird because it comes from a human throat, her voice surpasses the crystal purity of the flute. At the close is a wonderful climax—Barrientos and the flute in wonderful interplay.

Faust. (Gounod.) Die Possente (Even Bravest Heart)
49214, 12-inch, $1.50

Fifty years backward Stracciari turns the opera scores to find a song of warrior bold that gives his vigorous baritone voice full range and dramatic scope. The farewell song of the soldier Valentine as he goes to war seems as though it were expressly written for these present days. "Even bravest heart may swell in the moment of farewell" — Stracciari, leading baritone of the Chicago Opera, enriches these poignantly touching lines with grandeur and magnificence.

The November list of Columbia Records—which you can hear at any Columbia dealer's now—is one of the best-balanced lists ever offered by the Columbia Graphophone Company. It includes twenty songs, hits. Among the ten carefully selected double disc dance records are arrangements of "Hello, My Dearie!" (A5986) 12-inch, $1.25; "Send Me Away With a Smile" (A5990) 12-inch, $1.25; "Everybody's Jazzin' It!" (fox trot) (A2347) 75c.

Pollock, N. D., Oct. 19.—While his machine is a comparatively

With an additional $500 in subscriptions turned in direct to Secretary of State Hall and with pledges credited to their home counties by State Treasurer Steen, Deputy State Treasurer Lyngstad and First Assistant Attorney General Ernstrom, the state house up to noon today had taken $9,500 of the second liberty loan, with prospects that the goal of $10,000 originally set by Captain Hall for his capitol team will be greatly exceeded by Saturday.

every town and hamlet in the state patriotic programs be arranged with a view to encouraging the purchase of Liberty Bonds

The governor's proclamation follows: The president by proclamation having designated Wednesday, October 24, as Liberty Day, and made the afternoon of that day a holiday for federal employees, for the benefit of the Liberty Loan, and it being our patriotic duty to cooperate with the national government to the fullest extent of our ability

Therefore let Wednesday, October 24, be properly observed as Liberty Day, with the afternoon a legal holiday. I trust that all stores and public places will be closed and that business be suspended during the afternoon of that day in order that all may have an opportunity to personally participate in some active service to aid the sale of the Liberty Bonds

Mayors and other local governing authorities are especially requested to cooperate in their respective localities that Liberty Day may be celebrated in a fitting manner. Further I would suggest and urge that programs be arranged and patriotic meetings held in every community of the state, that committees may be encouraged and the selling of bonds facilitated, to the ultimate end that our enemies may know that the people of these United States are of one accord in the furtherance of this war for the overthrow

DISTRICT BOARD EXEMPTING MANY IN THIS COUNTY

Local Commission Reversed in Number of Cases—Quick Work by Registrant

The district board has reversed the Burleigh county board in a number of dependency claims which it decided adversely. The county board acted in each instance with what it believed to be a full knowledge of the case at hand, and it is rather anxious to know what evidence the district commission had to base its action upon.

One instance is that in which several sons of a widowed Bismarck woman, all of who were of draft age, and unmarried, are contributing to the support of their mother, who also has other sources of income. One of these young men was called on the first draft, and his claim that his mother was solely dependent upon him was adversely passed upon by the county board. The claim was appealed to the district board, which promptly reversed the local commission.

State's Attorney McCurdy, as Burleigh county representative of the United States government in connection with the draft, is investigating these cases, and it is probable that a number of them will be appealed to the president, and that the activities of state officials in connection with them will be looked into.

Quick Work. Returns are coming in on appeals taken from rulings of the district board to the president. In one instance a Washburn woman who asks her husband's discharge, advises that she is the mother of one child and that the stork is again hovering near The McLean county board advised that this marriage was consummated after registration day, June 5.

Some presidential appeals which have been referred back to state authorities indicate that registrants or their families acted before the district board had found time to pass on their claims, as in a number of instances after they had been appealed to the president were decided by the district board in favor of the registrant.

FLEET BOTTLED UP.

By Associated Press.

Russia's capital is soon to be removed to its ancient site at Moscow. The government's announcement of its decision to shift its activity from Petrograd and assigned no reason for the change. The issuance simultaneously, however, of statements that the civilian population of Reval, the Russian naval base on the Gulf of Finland, is being removed to the interior, suggests that the decision was not unanticipated by the German threat against Petrograd, now being developed in the naval and military operations in the Gulf of Riga and northward.

Removal Contemplated.

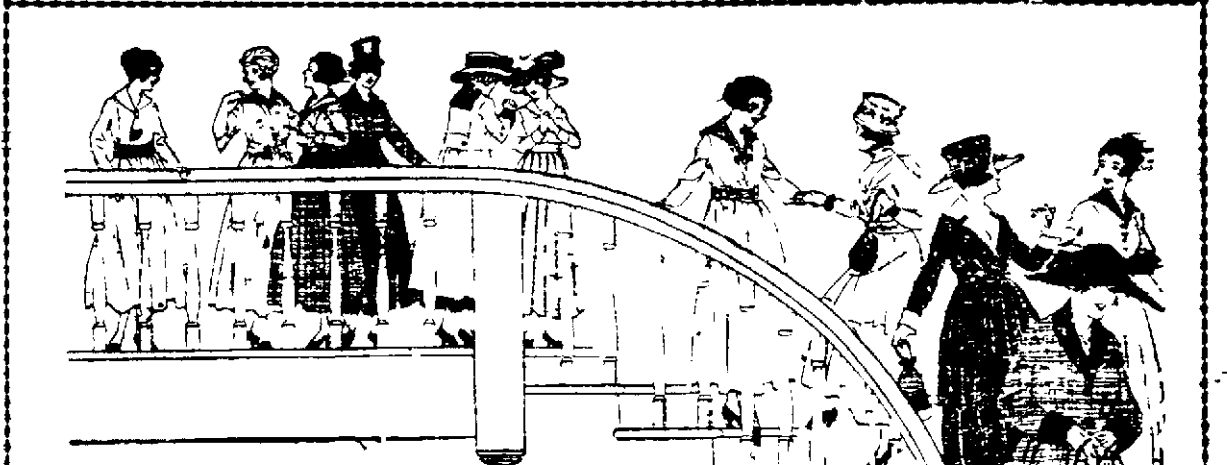

Previous suggestions that the removal of the government to Moscow had been contemplated had reference not only to the military situation, but to the assumption that the government might be freer to pursue its work in Moscow than in the present capital, where extremists' influences are powerful and turbulence more difficult of suppression.

Fleet Penned in.

While the small fleet the Russians had in Riga waters apparently has been penned in by the Germans as the result of their operations on Oesel and Moon islands, and the disposition of their superior naval forces at strategic points off the gulf, the main Russian fleet remains in the Gulf of Finland through which runs the water route to Petrograd. There is apparently no intention of sending it out to engage the Germans, although the men of the fleet are reported anxious to fight.

Operations on Aisne.

On the western fighting front, the French have been engaged in some intensive operations in the Aisne re-

There is nothing of which we are so liberal as advice—La Rochefoucauld.

A $50 bond will buy a six-inch shell. So purchase three or four and give the boys a hand.

SETS AN EXAMPLE.

At the suggestion of John Steen, the board in charge of the teachers' pension fund did not delay investing in liberty bonds. What a fine example for the board of university and school lands.

Of course the books are open until Oct. 27, but if Governor Frazier and his advisers desired to show more speed on matters patriotic and less steam on matters political, they would hardly have delayed action so long.

A patient people is waiting until the special meeting of the board of university and school lands tomorrow.

Even the prisoners in the state penitentiary have contributed some of their earnings to the liberty loan. Neither did they wait until the eleventh hour.

All honor to those in control of the pension fund. They honored the teachers of the state in setting aside $100,000.

PARTY WRECKED.

The socialist party in this country is a wreck. The real Americans—men like Charles Edward Russell, William English Walling, John Spargo and many others who could be named—have left the party in disgust.

There is no evidence that A. C. Townley, Bowen or Brinton have left the North Dakota socialist ranks.

The leadership that remains is largely pro-German, and is busily playing the pro-German game. It seeks to paralyze the fighting arm of our government and beguile us into a German peace, well knowing that would be a great and enduring German victory.

Thus the shell of the socialist party in America becomes a mere annex of the majority socialists of Germany, who have made of themselves an annex to kaiserism.

Time was when socialists prated theirs was the only real international party, the only party which did not pay any attention to frontier lines, but considered only human beings and their needs. No king, no kaiser, no president could make them forget their common humanity and fly at each other's throats.

All plain bosh and balderdash! When the kaiser, anxious to conquer the world, forced the war, the German socialists marched up to the trough like little German goose-stepping soldiers and voted all the credits the kaiserists asked to wage war on the great democracies of France and England.

Not only that, but German socialists like Suedekum Helne Hanisch Kolb took Lersch Adelung Quark and Landsberg were just as flushed by the early triumphs of German arms over the unprepared nations of the West as were the veriest freeriders who surrounded Wilhelm Hohenzollern.

The socialist about the time a first fall written Vorwarts. But as far as the much discussed annexations are concerned I have for my own part never made a secret of the fact that in the interest of the German people and especially of the working classes, I consider a considerable extension of our frontier line, toward the east, possibly as far as the Narew line, a highly desirable war aim.

With few exceptions all the socialists in the reichstag have been seized by a similar war madness and a similar war lust for loot. The braves and best of those who stood out against their party, Karl Liebknecht, is being killed by degrees by his prison sentence for telling unpalatable truths to royalty.

The majority socialists were wiser. They saved their hides by trailing along in the ranks of the kaiser supporters.

Since Michaelis has come on the scene, since the pan-Germans have renewed their demands for heavy indemnities and big annexations, the majority socialists have had very little to say.

The truth is they are either willing to play the kaiser's game or they are afraid to do anything else.

And their stoutest adherents in this country are those who constitute the shell of the socialist party. They do not stand with Liebknecht. They stand with the supple-kneed socialists who are immensely flattered that some of their number were recently invited to a garden party by the kaiser.

Now begins the season when newspapers reassure their readers by telling them how much colder it was somewhere else.

BUY THAT BOND.

Every young American who has volunteered, or has been chosen for the national army, is making a sacrifice for the sacred cause of democracy and country. He is giving some of the best years of his life, his job, his profession, his business, so liberty may not perish from the face of the earth.

Now—the question for us who remain at home to put to ourselves is: Can we make any sacrifice at all comparable? Of course, we cannot. Even if we do not have as much coal as usual, even if we do not eat as hearty a meal, even if we pay more taxes—all these things are as nothing to what the soldier boy is giving.

On his behalf, so that the war may be quickly won, the government is asking all of us to buy liberty bonds. If we merely invest of our surplus in these splendid securities we cannot lay any patriotic nation to our souls.

That is about the only kind of sacrifice most of us will be called upon to make and even that does not deserve the term "sacrifice," because we are really only enriching ourselves. We save thus more than we might otherwise have done and we escape the Prussian indemnity gatherer.

Austrian troops are refusing to fight on the Russian front. They refused to fight very hard on the Italian front several months ago.

WAR AND HABITS.

We make life easy by our habits, or we make it hard.

"Our nervous system grows to the modes in which it is exercised," is the scientific explanation of habit.

Some of us exercise our nervous system to our advantage. For example, we have good habits of putting on our clothes neatly, quickly and without thought. And some of us have bad habits of temper, or of worrying, or over-eating.

We seldom recognize the power of any habit until it is formed. And the great trouble is that we slip into habits, good and bad, drift into them, or slump into them without thought.

But they are none the less binding because we have not intended to make them, and it is none the less hard to break them.

What the new soldier in training suffers from most is not the change in his food and collar, but the making over of the habits of his body to suit his new profession. The walking habits of the soldier are often bad, and it takes months of training to replace them with the fine, easy marching habits of the regular army man.

Many human habits are being made over by the war, and there is no reason why the soldier boy should receive all of the discipline and benefit.

Once in a while it is a good plan for all of us to take stock of our peculiar assortment of habits—and then to treat them as allies—or as enemies.

Buy a bond and knock the "bel" out of Wilhelm.

T'WAS CHILLY LAST NIGHT BUT NO FALL RECORD WAS BROKEN

Imitating Anneke Kellerman, the mercury last night did some deep diving, fetching up at 12 above zero, giving Bismarck the prestige of being the chilliest spot in the northwest, but no records were broken. One night last week the thermometer dropped to ten, and temperatures of two below have been recorded in October.

The next chilliest spot on the weather maps last night was Moorhead, with 14 above, a temperature which Huron, S. D., tied. At Calgary, some distance to the north of us, the lowest registered was 16, which also was reported by Pierre and North Platte. To the west and each, the temperatures were much higher.

Unsettled weather is predicted for tonight, with probably light snow or rain. Saturday will be fair and cooler. The eastern storm now is central over the great lakes, and low temperatures have spread over the Missouri and Mississippi valleys. Little snow or rain was reported during the night.

Burleigh, through this publicity, is ranked as one of the progressive counties of America, and is shown to be well in the lead in the amount of road work done and the manner in which it has been executed. The Engineering News, another influential trade publication of national circulation, in a recent issue devoted several columns to an illustrated description of the extensive paving operations in Bismarck, which it notes as among the most important ever undertaken by a city of 8,000.

You May Send Sammy Any One of These Articles for a Christmas Gift

Just what to send the boys in khaki for Christmas is the one topic absorbing the attention of the people at home. Many things may be sent them but just what is the most appropriate for the comforts of army life is the question. After a thorough study of the needs of the boys the American Red Cross has completed a list which will give the boys both pleasure and comfort. The list follows:

Khaki-colored handkerchiefs, 27 inches square, for container. Writing paper pad, about 7x10 inches, envelopes, pencils, postals, book (in paper cover), scrapbook home-made containing a good short story, some jokes, etc., knife, such as boy scouts use, mirror, steel; handkerchiefs, khaki-colored; neckties, mouth organ, electric torch, compass, playing cards, mechanical puzzles (an assorted lot of twelve small mechanical puzzles can be bought at the rate of 12 for 50 cents), Red Cross checkerboard (this is a combination set of checkerboard, checkers, chessmen, and dominoes made of heavy cardboard especially for the Red Cross and can be purchased from the headquarters for 5 cents apiece). Other games, tobacco, pipe and pipe cleaners, cigar papers, water-tight match boxes, chewing sum, fruited chocolate, and other sweetened crackers, in original packages, fruit cake, preserved ginger, salted nuts, prunes, figs, dates, raisins hard candy, chocolate in tin foil and licorice.

The khaki-colored handkerchief for container, the writing pad and the Red Cross checkerboard can be purchased from Red Cross chapters. Obtain tin boxes holding each a quarter of a pound is a good way in which to send the gifts. The base of the package can be formed by placing on the center of the khaki-colored handkerchief of articles selected should not exceed $1.50 and arrange them on the pad so that the entire package shall be the width of the pad and approximately five or six inches high. The package can then be wrapped in paper and tied with the Christmas ribbon and may contain a Christmas card. Light brown Manila paper should be used for the outer wrapper and strong cord should be used to tie it. The Red Cross seals, Christmas labels or American flags may be used to ornament it to give it the Yuletide cheer.

Further information for the sending of the gifts can be secured from the local Red Cross chapter.

BISMARCK BOY WITH RAINBOW DIVISION IN FRANCE

Paul Marshall Jewell, son of Mrs. Marshall H. Jewell of Thayer street, has arrived in France with the famous Rainbow division and is now with General Pershing's forces. He is a member of the 151st U. S. field artillery headquarters company, and is the third Bismarcker to arrive on the fighting front. Capt. A. A. Jones and Alfred Humphreys preceded him there.

In a short communication to his mother announcing his safe arrival no mention was made of what part of France the Rainbow division was located. Mr. Jewell has expressed a desire to be remembered by his Bismarck friends. Communications addressed to him to the American Expeditionary forces in care of the postmaster of New York city will reach him.

Warning

We are informed that at some cafes, restaurants and gardens beer and strong drinks have been sold under the guise of the popular soft drink, Bevo.

These reports have been confirmed sufficiently to compel us to take action.

The beverage Bevo enjoys the protection of both federal and state authority. In preparing it for sale and in marketing it, we adopt every possible precaution to protect the public against imposition and to prevent evasion of the law. Bevo is sold in bottles only, we bottle all of it ourselves, and we have adopted a kind of bottle, crown and seals designed to prevent imitation.

We shall omit no measure within our power to defend the authority under which Bevo is manufactured and sold, to protect the public from imposition, and to safeguard the good name of this Association.

We therefore give fair warning that we shall refuse to sell our products to those who are found guilty of the above offense.

Girls! Use Lemon Juice!

Make a quarter pint of beauty cream for little cost. Clears, softens and whitens the skin. Brings out the hidden roses!

By all means girls prepare a lemon lotion to keep your skin flexible and young looking. You will soon realize that true loveliness does not mean the powdery look or waxen colorlessness of some hot house flower, but is typified by the velvety softness of your skin, your peachlike complexion and rosy white hands.

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quarter pint of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white.

Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener and beautifier. Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy or toilet counter and two lemons from your grocer and make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands, particularly rough, red hands.

BISMARCK ELKS TO FETE GRAND
RULER TONIGHT

McKenzie Hotel Will Be Scene of Brilliant Banquet in Honor of Harper

Fred Harper of Lynchburg, West Va., grand exalted ruler of the Elks, will be guest of honor at a brilliant banquet to be tendered by Bismarck lodge at the McKenzie hotel this evening. The feed will begin at 9 o'clock and will terminate some time in the wee sma's hours. Chief Justice Andrew A. Bruce of the North Dakota supreme court will preside as toastmaster, Sam Clark is down for the address of welcome, and an attractive program of responses from the cattlemen's best after-dinner speakers has been arranged. An address from Grand Exalted Ruler Harper will feature the evening. O'Connor's orchestra will furnish music, and the cuisine of the McKenzie has been taxed to furnish one of the most famous of its feeds.

The late and Exalted Ruler Harper, Grand Secretary Fred Robinson and other national officers of the order elected at the recent annual meeting in Boston are on their way east from a tour of the Pacific coast, having gone over the southern route. They are the first grand officers of this rank to visit North Dakota. Elkhound, and Bismarck's herd hopes to make this evening's event one worthy of that occasion.

The only other stop which the party will make in North Dakota will be at Fargo, where the grand officers will precede to the Twin Cities. The arrival in Bismarck on No. 3 this evening and resume their eastward journey on No. 4 tomorrow morning. Every Elk in Bismarck is urged to turn out tonight.

ETERNAL VIGILANCE THE PRICE OF PEACE DECLARE SPEAKER

Smith Stimmel, Judge Advoca
General G. A. E., and W. J.
Arnold Address Guard

That eternal vigilance is the price of peace and safety at home while our armies are waging their war for world-wide democracy and liberty the French trenches was the message brought to the Bismarck home guard last night by the "Flying Squadron" of the home defense league. Smith Stimmel and W. J. Arnold sang.

Fargo. Smith Stimmel, only survivor of Lincoln's personal bodyguard, a this week honored with the office of judge advocate general for the United States Army of the Republic, had some philosophy of home conditions in the north during the Civil war, and declared there have the same type of pernicious character today, and that the same necessity for caution and care now exists. The enemy, he declared, were entrenched behind organizations which do not bear the brand of the kaiser, but which are none the less zealously working in his interest and desecrating his bloody bay.

W. J. Arnold, publisher of the North Dakota Standard, urged silent treatment for pro-German pacifists and others of their ilk who are dangerous only when given a hearing. He urged that everyone, man, woman and child, be on guard for traitors in our midst, and he commended highly the work of the home guard and the Iowa defense league, which after the governor had thrown down the bars to the I. W. W., commanded his peace officers not to molest these invaders, had taken upon themselves the defense of the farmers' lives and property, and had saved to it that his crops were harvested without loss. He spoke of the effort made by A. C. Townley to tie up North Dakota farmers with the northern league, and declared that he was proud to have seen Townley in defying the I. W. W. Townley at its back did no more courageous thing in the state's history.

About 60 members of the Bismarck home guard attended the meeting held at the Commercial club on a notice, and much interest was shown in the speakers' remarks. Following the addresses various committees of the home guard met to advance the preliminary work of organization. It is the present plan to fully equip and arm the home guard at the earliest possible moment.

WATERS DENIES THAT HE THREATENED BANKS NOT AIDING BOND SALE

J. R. Waters, state examiner, in a letter to the Fargo Forum, denies that he has ever threatened to penalize state banks not aiding with the sale of Liberty loan bonds. The Forum's story to the effect that Waters had taken such a stand purported to come from A. R. Rosers of St. Paul, chairman for the Ninth district Liberty loan committee, and presuming that it was well founded, The Tribune published the report.

Mr. Waters has declared himself thoroughly in sympathy with the campaign for the sale of the second Liberty loan, and he has issued to all state banks a circular letter published

STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA, ss.

County of Burleigh, ss.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 10th day of October, A. D. 1917.

(Notary Seal) LEIP SWENNUMSON, Notary Public, North Dakota. My commission expires June 4, 1919.

Attest: CARL R. KOSITZKY, State Auditor.

In The Tribune last week calling upon them to do everything in their power to aid the movement. But, he states, he does not feel that the use of the "big stick" would be helpful, and he never has intimidated in any way that a club would be used to bring state banks into line.

So far as can be learned, not one of North Dakota's more than 700 state banks and trust companies is failing to do its bit in connection with the loan.

BIG CROWDS AT SALE.

The big Clothing and Gents' Furnishing Sale being conducted by Alex. Rosen & Bro. at their Model store on Main street attracted a large throng of eager buyers when they opened their store this morning.

The values they are offering are values to appreciate. They advertised they are going out of business at the Model location and to substantiate their statement they offer $1,000 to the Red Cross fund if anyone can prove otherwise.

Not alone are they offering men's wearing apparel, but are desirous of selling the store's fixtures as well.

Wife of Sen. O. G. Willett of Montana Remains With Terribly Afflicted Life Partner

Helena, Mont., Oct. 19.—Senator O. G. Willett, who was found to be afflicted with leprosy, has been placed in quarantine at his home in Alberton, Mineral county, and his bride of seven months, at her own request, has been permitted to act as his attendant.

Dr. W. G. Cogswell, secretary of the state board of health, has returned from Alberton, where he investigated the case. As to whether Senator Willett, later be sent to a leprosarium will not be known until after the case has been taken up with the federal authorities.

"Senator Willett is resigned to his fate, and his chief desire now is to prevent others from being similarly afflicted," said Dr. Cogswell. "For the present he is in isolation at his home in Alberton. It is possible that arrangements will be made to secure a small ranch further out where Senator Willett may employ his time gardening for his own use. He desires to do this. It would also enable him to take walks over the mountains, where he would come into contact with no people.

"Mrs. Willett expressed a desire to remain with her husband, and as it would be necessary to secure an attendant for him, it was decided to permit her to remain with him. Mineral county will defray the expense of the case."

ELEVATORS CHOKED WITH GRAIN WHEN CARS ARE SCARCE

Thirty-Day Clause Fails to Move Wheat—Much Now Coming to Primary Market

Despite the 30-day storage clause and a crop shortage in some sections of the state, North Dakota elevators are being choked with grain through failure of railway companies to provide cars. Complaints reached the board today from the Raleigh Equity Exchange, which has two large elevators filled to the roof, and from Ashley, where all the grain storage is said to be filled. Supt. F. G. Hill of the Milwaukee line in response to a wire from the commission advised that it has been difficult to get grain cars, but that Raleigh will be taken care of, and Supt. Scott Derrick of the Soo line is on the warpath to discover why his division is not getting its proper allotment of grain cars. The fixing of a definite price for wheat has resulted in rushing the grain to market, and unless the elevators can find cars to move the grain as rapidly as it comes in, congestion is certain.

Four Grid Teams Take Field With Veteran Line-Ups

Football might well have plagiarized Mark Twain last summer and gravely announced that "the reports are greatly exaggerated" when its obituary was read in many a large and juicy gob of chatter.

For football is not dead by a long shot and, moreover if all early preparations pan out there will be more football played in America this year than ever before.

Practically every college will have a team on the field. Even Harvard and Yale will have "informal" teams. Informal, in this case meaning teams which cost less than the $100,000 out-fits they have produced in past years.

College football may not be up to the high standard of former years, but it will not be noticeable, as practically all colleges have suffered equally from loss of material and the games will be just as hard fought as formerly.

The great Harley is back, greater than ever, if his early performances are an indication, and in place of Sorenson in the backfield, a youngster, Stinchcomb, said to be as great as Harley, will be in the lineup.

Strange to say, that although Glenn Warner lost a great deal of valuable material last year, including Peck and Hastings, he has a team this year, which Pittsburgh critics declare is fully as strong as his wonderful 1916 machine.

West Point, without veterans from the two upper classes who were graduated, is said to have lost little of its 1916 strength. There is no freshman rule at West Point and a great class of first class material came in this year which will be built up around Oliphant, now in his sixth year of college football.

The other school which seems to be fully as strong as in 1916 is Georgia Tech, which recently created a furore by the overwhelming defeat of Pennsylvania.

Chick Harley, all-American fullback of Ohio State and Elmer Oliphant, all-American half of West Point, have started a new season with all the brilliance which marked their last season.

In addition to the successful season promised college football there will be the additional interest created by hundreds of teams in the great army camps. Amateur football has not been affected by the war and in the middle west the great professional football league is already in operation.

Change in Laws Gives More Time to Hunt Game Birds

Hunters of migratory game birds, the hunting of which has been covered by federal as well as state game laws will be interested to know of some changes recently made in the seasons during which these birds may be shot. The changes have been made, to a great extent, because of activities of state game wardens to make the local and federal laws more uniform.

In states now having an open season from Sept. 7 to Dec. 29, Minnesota, Wisconsin, the Dakotas, Montana, Wyoming and Idaho, the season has been changed to Sept. 16 to Dec. 31. The same season will also apply to the New England states excluding Rhode Island and Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Missouri, Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Nevada and the eastern counties of Oregon and Washington.

The longest seasons will be in western Washington and Oregon. Utah, New Jersey, Rhode Island and Connecticut, from Oct. 1 to Jan. 15 and in California, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas and Oklahoma, from Oct. 16 to Jan. 31.

In the southern Atlantic and Gulf states the season will extend from Nov. 1 to Jan. 31.

Under the new regulations migratory birds may be shot half an hour before sunrise. Under the former regulations birds of this type could not be shot before sunrise.

Beating Stagg's players is a tasteful dish for Northwestern. The Purple clad players bowled over Chicago last season for the first time in years and hope to repeat.

Coach Murphy and his charges plan to witness the Chicago-Purdue game Saturday to get a line on Chicago's plays and also the style of the Boiler-makers, whom Northwestern will meet at Purdue on Nov. 3.

Minnesota U. Will Attempt to Eliminate Hoosiers Tomorrow

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Games of importance in the scramble for the Big Ten football championship are set for decision Saturday, Oct. 20. The Minnesota eleven will attempt to eliminate Indiana from the race in a game to be played at Minneapolis. Wisconsin and Illinois will clash at Urbana and Chicago will take on Purdue at Stagg field.

Although other Western conference teams will take the field, their results will have no bearing on the championship. Iowa will face Grinnell at Iowa City and Michigan will play the Michigan Aggies at Ann Arbor. Ohio State, which many critics regard as likely to retain the conference title which it won for the first time last year, and Northwestern, have no contests scheduled.

Pointing to its overwhelming victories over Kansas and Oklahoma, Illinois hopes to make its conference debut of the season with a triumph over Wisconsin. Coach Zuppke started in Monday to develop an attack and warned his players to expect a desperate battle from the Badgers, who held the strong Notre Dame eleven to a scoreless draw last week. The game also will be Wisconsin's first conference affair of the season. Coach John Richards of the Badgers was greatly disappointed because his players failed to score against Notre Dame, but is confident of an improved showing against the Illini.

As a result of the 48 to 0 victory over Vanderbilt, critics look to Chicago to down Purdue. The showing of the Maroons Saturday was a pleasing surprise to Stagg's followers. The victory put a world of confidence into the green and gold, material offered the veteran coach. Purdue barely escaped defeat at the hands of De-paw last Saturday, and will have to play a much improved game to keep Chicago from rolling up a big count.

Defeating Chicago is a trick Purdue has been trying to put over since 1894 the date of the Boiler-makers last victory over the Chicagoans. Twenty-two games have been played between the teams, and Chicago has won all but four of them. Purdue captured the honors in 1892, 1893 and 1894, and in 1901 the two elevens battled to a 5 to 5 tie at Chicago.

Minnesota is expected to take Indiana's measure, although the Hoosiers are determined to hold the Gophers to the closest possible score. Coach Stehm of the Indiana institution has been seriously handicapped through the lack of material, but has succeeded in developing a "scrappy" eleven, of which two or three veterans formed the nucleus. Minnesota demonstrated its driving power in rolling up a 34 to 0 score against South Dakota state last Saturday. With but one exception the players emerged from the contest without injury, a promising halfback suffered a bruised back, and probably will be kept out of practice until next week. It was his first contest with Minnesota and his shifty end runs caused much comment.

The clash between Notre Dame and the well balanced Nebraska eleven at Lincoln is attracting considerable sectional interest. The Cornhuskers squad, reported to be one of the best ever developed at Nebraska, appears to have the edge on the Hoosiers. Nebraska buried Iowa under a top-heavy score last week, while Notre Dame was tying Wisconsin.

The Northwestern eleven, which will be idle Saturday, is facing a brisk training program in preparation for the annual clash with Chicago, Oct. 27. Coach Fred Murphy and followers of the Purple squad decline to admit that Northwestern, despite its overwhelming defeat at the hands of Ohio State, is entirely out of the running for conference honors.

With another week ahead of him Coach Murphy hopes to build up a team to take the measure of Chicago.

DUCK HUNTERS BAG DAY'S LIMIT IN AN HOUR; LAKE FREEZES

Wonderful duck hunting is reported in the vicinity of Napoleon by Wellington Irish, Frank Giermann and L. H. Carufel, who phoned in last evening that in one hour's shooting they bagged the day's limit of birds. A large number of Bismarck hunters had planned to go to Long Lake today, but word came this morning that this inland sea, which is very shallow, had frozen over during the night, and had temporarily been deserted by the ducks.

SPORT GOSSIP

Ann Arbor Mich., Oct. 19.—The tackling dummy on the university of Michigan football practice field has been re-christened and is now a male instead of a female personage.

Coach Yost, grinning broadly, is ready to admit that there is an ocean of effectiveness "in a name."

Until this season the dummy has been known as "Gertrude." On numerous occasions, Yost, Trainer Tutthill and other chiefs of the training squad, have informed ambitious young football candidates that they never would get to the front unless they showed considerably less consideration for "Gertrude's" feelings.

This season, with many gridiron stars absent from college, and many green men to teach, Yost faced a problem.

But he solved it. He had the tackling dummy re-christened. It's new name is "Kaiser Bill."

And that's the reason why Yost is still grinning.

Cleveland, Oct. 19.—The Cleveland Americans are enthusiastic over their prospective trip to Montgomery, Ala., to play a series of games with the soldier team at Camp Sheridan. Most of the players will go to the camp direct from their homes, while others will meet in Cleveland, Oct. 23 to make the trip.

Michigan and Ohio State are geographically located to become rivals.

Columbus, Oct. 19.—Bryan Downey, the Columbus welterweight, and Johnny Griffiths of Akron are to meet in a twelve round contest here Oct. 22. It will be their third encounter, Griffiths having won the first two contests. The winner will be matched to box Ted Lewis, the welterweight champion.

Muskegon Mich., Oct. 19.—The Muskegon Central League baseball park, located in the heart of the city, has been offered for sale. A new park, farther out, probably will be obtained.

Racine, Wis., Oct. 19.—Bill Brennan, a lanky Chicago heavyweight, is going to display his ring wares before the "home folks," on Nov. 6. Although born and reared in Chicago, Brennan, who has scored a number of knockouts in eastern rings, has not fought around here for years. His opponent will be Homer Smith, a giant farmer boy from Michigan, who recently returned from the east with a fairly good record. They are to box ten rounds.

Bloomington, Ind., Oct. 19.—Supporters of the Indiana University football eleven plan to charter a special train to carry them to the Indiana Ohio state football game to be played in Indianapolis on Nov. 3. The students and alumni headed by a band, are arranging to parade the streets before the game. The success of the parade before the Tufts game last season proved the possibilities of such a demonstration this year.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 19.—Fred Fulton, the giant heavyweight from Rochester, Minn., is ready for his round-robin contest with Bob Devere, a New York fighter, here tonight. They will step to the rounds.
